CIRSEAU
Building a water-smart economy and society

Call for contributions

We are looking for contributions to the CIRSEAU Online Workshop "Best Practices in Communication and Stakeholder Engagement for Water Reuse and Resource Recovery"

The CIRSEAU project invites contributions to an online workshop focused on effective communication and stakeholder engagement in water reuse and resource recovery at national and EU levels.

🎯 Objective

As part of CIRSEAU's mission to support the safe and accepted implementation of the EU Water Reuse Regulation (EU) 2020/741, this workshop aims to exchange practical experiences, challenges, and success factors in engaging stakeholders and building public trust.

🧩 Topics

We welcome contributions on case studies showcasing:

- Impactful communication for water reuse and resource recovery (e.g. public awareness & acceptance)
- Success stories or lessons learned on stakeholder engagement (e.g. participatory approaches, co-creation)

📥 Contributions

We invite short presentations of case studies (5–10 minutes).

Just drop us a message including the case study and the key messages you want to showcase.

🗓️ Key Dates

- Deadline for contributions: 22.7.2026

📨 Submission

Please send your contribution to: Lisa Zimmermann (l.zimmermann@iww-online.de)

Join us to share knowledge and strengthen communication and engagement approaches for water reuse and resource recovery across Europe within the CIRSEAU community.
